Apostolic Discernment of Reality

CASE A true situation or event from real life that helps the team or community to discover the message of God for them in their current situation should be chosen. The closer the case is to the lives of the members and the social reality in which they live, the better it will facilitate the apostolic discernment of the team.

TO SEE We want to see the case as God sees it, learning to observe life with objectivity and depth, with reason and faith, discovering how God is present in it.

TO JUDGE After we have become more aware of the presence of the wheat and the weeds in the case we have chosen (see Matthew 13:24-30), we want to discern how Jesus judges or interprets our presence, participation, or attitudes before this case, and, consequently, understand what he hopes for from us.

TO ACT & APOSTOLIC COMMITMENT This is the moment to choose what actions of conversion and apostolate we are called to in light of what we have discerned that Christ is asking of us.

APOSTOLIC DISCERNMENT OF REALITY

- observing our reality to discover how to carry out our mission within it

BREAKOUT DISCERNING HOW WE LEAD

3. APOSTOLIC DISCERNMENT OF REALITY

After we have encountered Christ through his Word, we undertake a communal discernment of what he expects of us as a team or community in the circumstances of life in which we find ourselves. Consequently, we will observe the reality in which we are immersed with the desire to discover the best way to carry out our mission of evangelization within it.

1º Choice of a case study

A true situation or event from real life that helps the team or community to discover the message of God for them in their current situation should be chosen.

The closer the case is to the lives of the members and the social reality in which they live, the better it will facilitate the apostolic discernment of the team.

2º Analysis of the case, or "Revision of Life", done in three elements: to see, to judge, and to act.
