Regnum Christi has a Christ-centered Spirituality that is lived together in Communion with all members, in union with the whole Church, and through a Mission to build the kingdom of Christ.

Legionaries of Christ

Driven by the desire of Jesus' heart to set the world ablaze, the priests of the Legionaries of Christ support each other and work in communion with other Regnum Christi members in their mission to form apostles, people who let the love of Christ the King transform their hearts, their families and their world.

Consecrated Women of Regnum Christi

As lay women who live in community with vows of poverty, chastity and obedience, the Consecrated Women of Regnum Christi bring Christ's love to the world in the unique way of lay consecration.

Lay Consecrated Men of Regnum Christi

The Lay Consecrated Men of Regnum Christi bring the Gospel to the world by being completely dedicated to Christ while they live their vows, community life and careers as evangelizers in the secular world.

Lay Members of Regnum Christi

Lay Members of Regnum Christi are passionate Catholics from all walks of life who invite others in their parishes and dioceses to experience Christ's love and follow him as apostles. Through the witness of their own call to holiness and through their works of evangelization with youth, young adults and families, they change the world we live in.

Revealing Christ's love to people, forming them as apostles and launching them in their God-given mission

- 4 Vocations, 1 Spiritual Family.
- A Global Federation in 38 countries.
- 30,000 Regnum Christi members worldwide.
- Nearly 4,000 members in the North American Territory.

4 Vocations. 1 Spiritual Family.

“We are a spiritual family and an apostolic body comprised of 4 vocations, lay members, consecrated women, consecrated men, and Legionaries of Christ, sharing the same spirituality and mission, called to help Christ reign in the hearts of all men and women by forming apostles.”

Fr. John Connor, LC

PRESIDENT OF THE GENERAL DIRECTIVE COLLEGE OF THE REGNUM CHRISTI FEDERATION

Regnum Christi, made up of 30,000 members, has been transforming culture with the light of the Gospel since 1941.

Regnum Christi has a Christ-centered spirituality that is lived together in communion with all members, in union with the whole Church, and through a mission to build the kingdom of Christ.

Regnum Christi's mission is to reveal Christ's love to people, form them as apostles and launch them in their God-given mission.

Regnum Christi members fulfill their mission through youth work, schools and universities, small groups, personal accompaniment, missions, retreats, parishes, online and radio evangelization and other apostolic work.

The personal experience of Christ's love produces in the hearts of Regnum Christi members an interior urgency to give themselves to their mission passionately, so as to make his kingdom present: “The love of Christ impels us” (2 Cor 5:14). This passion results in a way of living that we call Militia Christi.

LEGIONARIES OF CHRIST

Impacting thousands of lives for Christ through youth work, education, parishes, missions, the sacraments and spiritual direction

- More than 1,500 Legionaries of Christ across the world.
- Over 150 Legionaries of Christ priests in the North American Territory.
- Over 30 newly ordained Legionaries of Christ priests last year.

Legionaries of Christ

“I love everything about being a Legionary. I love the spirit, the mission, the discipline, the focus, and the high ideals and expectations. God and all of the souls in our broken world deserve the best of us, and in different ways he has constantly given me a chance to offer everything I have—out of love for him, the Church and humanity.”

Fr. Charles Sikorsky, LC, JD, JCL

PRESIDENT OF DIVINE MERCY UNIVERSITY
ARLINGTON, VIRGINIA

Driven by the desire of Jesus' heart to set the world ablaze, the religious priests of the Legionaries of Christ support each other and work in communion with other Regnum Christi members in their mission to form apostles, people who let the love of Christ the King transform their hearts, their families and their world.

The Legionaries of Christ are a Roman Catholic religious congregation of priests and seminarians, and part of the Regnum Christi Federation. They live in communities, and make vows of poverty, chastity and obedience.

The formation of a Legionary is a deep and transformative process that spans an average of 14 years, leading up to his priestly ordination. He is formed to be both contemplative and apostolic.

Legionaries go out as missionaries in today's world. With great charity, joy and zeal, they invite people into the adventure of living for Christ and transforming the culture around them. Each year they impact thousands of lives through youth work, education, parishes, missions, the sacraments, and spiritual direction.

CONSECRATED WOMEN OF REGNUM CHRISTI

Awakening the individual and the family to their God-given mission in life and in the Church

- More than 500 Consecrated Women of Regnum Christi worldwide.
- Around 90 Consecrated Women of Regnum Christi in the North American Territory.

Consecrated Women of Regnum Christi

“Our mission is to spread the kingdom of Christ in every heart and in society, to be at the service of others and the Church.”

Adrienne Rolwes

NATIONAL VOCATIONS DIRECTOR
ATLANTA, GEORGIA

As lay women who live in community with vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience, the Consecrated Women of Regnum Christi bring Christ's love to the world in the unique way of lay consecration. The Consecrated Women are sisters in Christ who share the same mission and are part of the Regnum Christi Movement.

The entire life of a Consecrated Woman of Regnum Christi is a mission, lived first in prayer, sacrifice, and consecration. Their apostolate is evangelization, bringing people to a personal encounter with the Lord so that they may know and respond to Him.

They bring people to experience Christ's love, offer them formation and accompany them as they go out to build the kingdom of Christ, with a goal of awakening the individual and the family to their mission in life and in the Church.

Working in collaboration with the Church and its bishops, they support the ministry of local dioceses, promote parish life, work in youth programs and missions, preach, teach, give spiritual direction, and run courses, pilgrimages and retreats.

LAY CONSECRATED MEN OF REGNUM CHRISTI

Evangelizing in dioceses, schools,
universities, businesses and other professional fields

- More than 60 Lay Consecrated Men working on all 7 continents
- Living in the world to transform it into a place of encounter with God
- Working in areas that impact culture through their participation in secular realities

Lay Consecrated Men of Regnum Christi

“Sharing the Catholic faith, and my personal experience of it, has been my passion and mission for 27 years. I see myself as a bridge builder between laypeople, religious, priests and the Church. Currently I am working on an exciting project that involves evaluating and implementing new methodologies and materials that will help parishes to awaken the unengaged and form those who want more.”

Tony MacDonnell

DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION
WITHIN THE ARCHDIOCESE OF NEW YORK

Living the lay vocation, together with a total consecration to God that is enriched by the charism of the Regnum Christi Federation, the life of the Lay Consecrated Men of Regnum Christi is a path of vocational fulfillment for the Christian man.

They live in the world among other people, while being completely consecrated to God.

They are men who fight to radiate Christ in the world, to make it a place of encounter with God, while they work in business, higher education, law, diocesan roles, and other professional fields. They are men of a deep interior life, who encounter God in the realities of the world around them. They are living witnesses of what Christ proposed as the response to our deepest needs for fulfillment and happiness as human beings, showing that it is possible to live this in today's world.

Following Christ, they embrace vows of poverty, chastity and obedience.

LAY MEMBERS OF REGNUM CHRISTI

Accompanying
thousands of people on their journey to Christ and forming them as apostles

- There are more than 21,000 Lay Members worldwide.
- The North American Territory has over 3,000 Lay Members.

Lay Members of Regnum Christi

“As a Catholic, I had a desire to fully live my baptismal call to be an apostle and evangelize but felt ill-equipped to do so. When I met Regnum Christi, it was obvious that this was the path that God chose for me to fulfill that desire he had placed in my heart.”

Tammy O'Brien

LAY MEMBER
COVINGTON, LOUISIANA

Lay Members of Regnum Christi are passionate Catholics from all walks of life who impact our world by building Christ's kingdom here on earth.

They live the charism of Regnum Christi through five elements: spiritual life, formation, mission, accompaniment and team life.

The core of their spiritual lives is knowing Christ's love and sharing that love with others.

Their formation gives them a strong Catholic worldview, equipping them to evangelize culture.

Their mission is living the Gospel in their personal lives and through leading retreats, missions, parish work, youth work, faith-based small groups and other works of evangelization.

They accompany people on their journey to Christ, forming them as apostles.

They gather in teams to pray and to support each other in living their baptismal vocation to evangelize.

LEGION OF CHRIST NOVITIATE AND COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES

Seminarians and priests who form
Christian leaders to engage culture with the transforming power of the Gospel

- Over 500 Legionaries of Christ are in formation for the priesthood worldwide.
- More than 70 seminarians are studying at the Novitiate and College of Humanities in Cheshire, Connecticut.
- 10 New novices entered last year.

Legion of Christ Novitiate and College of Humanities

“A Legionary of Christ forms people who want to impact culture and society for Christ. He strives to provide highly personal formation to each individual, so that Christ and the Gospel can transform their life, their family and the world around them.”

Fr. John Connor, LC

GENERAL DIRECTOR OF THE LEGIONARIES OF CHRIST

At the Legion of Christ Novitiate and College of Humanities in Cheshire, Connecticut, young men begin their journey to the priesthood in the Congregation of the Legionaries of Christ.

While there the seminarians receive four years of formation in spiritual, human, intellectual and apostolic formation. This is the foundation for their future as priests and apostles in the world.

Before going to novitiate the young men who experience God's call to be a Legionary of Christ go through candidacy, a period during the summer to discern this call.

After the candidacy, those who still feel called continue their discernment in the novitiate, a period of two years dedicated to establishing and fortifying their relationship with Christ and to getting to know the Legionaries of Christ and the shared charism of Regnum Christi. At the end of novitiate, they profess vows of poverty, chastity and obedience.

The next two years, after novitiate, are focused on studying classical humanities in order to gain a better knowledge of the origins of today's culture and of human nature through the insights of the classical authors. These studies better equip them to evangelize society and form Christian leaders and apostles who engage culture with the transforming power of the Gospel, which is the shared mission of the Regnum Christi Federation.

SACRED HEART APOSTOLIC SCHOOL

Helping each young man discover and live
the mission which God is entrusting to him

- Currently over 30 students enrolled
- Over 100 students have passed through the school.
- Half of all graduates have continued on to the Legionaries of Christ's novitiate in Cheshire, Connecticut or to diocesan seminaries.

Sacred Heart Apostolic School

“Our son attends Sacred Heart Apostolic School. We love the Catholic culture and atmosphere present at the school, created by the way prayer and the Catholic faith are both weaved throughout his day. It is a comprehensive program, creating the optimal environment for learning as well as spiritual growth and formation.”

TJ and Sarah

PARENTS, SACRED HEART APOSTOLIC SCHOOL

Sacred Heart Apostolic School is a boarding school for 8–12th grade boys who feel that God may be calling them to the priesthood. Students mature in a healthy, joyful atmosphere of brotherhood and personal accompaniment while they freely discern a possible call to the seminary after high school.

Partnering with parents, the school helps each young man discover and live the mission which God is entrusting to him. It provides an experience of faith and education which truly forms every aspect of the young man’s life, preparing him for an incredible future.

Fully accredited, Sacred Heart Apostolic School opened its doors in the fall of 2005. Since then, over a hundred students have passed through the school. About fifty percent of graduates have continued on to the Legionaries of Christ’s novitiate in Cheshire, Connecticut or to diocesan seminaries.

Other graduates have continued their education in various colleges and universities, including Notre Dame, the University of Dallas and Loyola. Every graduate of Sacred Heart Apostolic School is well prepared to make a meaningful impact on today’s society.

Semper Altius – Forming Christian Leaders Who Will Transform Society

“We were impressed at how clearly and consistently the Pinecrest mission of forming the whole child is communicated. Within the first semester alone, there were several examples of the school providing enlightening and enjoyable opportunities for partnering with parents to reinforce this message.”

Karen

PARENT AT PINECREST ACADEMY
CUMMING, GEORGIA

A Regnum Christi school is a Christ-centered educational community of excellence. It offers an experience of joy that comes from encountering Christ and becoming apostles eager to exercise their Christian leadership with a spirit of mission - helping the Church build Christ's kingdom, impact culture and transform society.

The RC philosophy of education is rooted in the Christian view of the person and is shaped by the charism of Regnum Christi, which aims to evangelize and form passionate apostles for Christ. RC schools educate the whole child and accompany them in their personal development. In the classroom and in extracurricular activities they focus on the whole person through integral formation: intellectual, human, spiritual and apostolic.

The goal is mature, well balanced graduates who have attained virtue and strong leadership capabilities. Graduates have gone on to realize vocations in the priesthood, consecrated life, and marriage. They have been accepted to the highest ranked universities in North America including Harvard, MIT, Berkley, Cornell, UCLA, Columbia and Yale.

Encounters, Convictions, Your Decisions

“I have been involved with missions since I was in fourth grade, spreading the joy of Christ. All of us from every age are encouraged spiritually to go out and give back what God has given to us.”

Jack

MEMBER OF ECYD
PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

Through different experiences of encounter, youth acquire firm life convictions and learn to make free and responsible decisions according to Gospel criteria.

Regnum Christi's youth work is rooted in ECYD, an international Catholic association of adolescents who make a pledge of friendship with Christ and with each other to build up a new world according to the Gospel. ECYD shares the Regnum Christi charism adapted for adolescents.

ECYD helps young people develop a personal friendship with Christ and be his apostles. This friendship with Christ is the starting point.

ECYD presents adolescents with an attractive and demanding Christian ideal and lifestyle. Through small-group formation called team life, accompaniment by mentors, prayer, and apostolic action, adolescents learn who they are in Christ and grow into strong Catholic apostles, the missionary disciples the Church needs for the future.

REGNUM CHRISTI SERVING FAMILIES

Offering guidance and support to couples from the days of their engagement into their golden years

- Last year over 6,500 men and women came closer to Christ through retreats run by Regnum Christi members in North America.
- More than 20 Three to Get Married Retreats and 24-Hour Marriage Retreats were held last year, reaching over 500 couples.
- Families participated in Holy Week Missions in 16 cities in the North American Territory, serving over 4,000 people in need.

Serving Families

“Our mission is to form families of apostles, to help the Church really imbue the culture with the Gospel.”

Fr. John Connor, LC

TERRITORIAL DIRECTOR OF REGNUM CHRISTI
NORTH AMERICAN TERRITORY

Drawing upon the best in contemporary psychology, Church teaching, practical wisdom from the experience of married couples, and the beauty of Christian marriage and family life, our marriage and family programs offer guidance and support to couples from the days of their engagement into their golden years. A few of the most popular Regnum Christi family programs are:

Three to Get Married

Three to Get Married is a marriage preparation course designed for couples marrying in the Catholic Church.

The Newlywed Program

The Newlywed Program is a fun and informative monthly series designed for couples in the first three years of marriage.

Three to Stay Married & 24-Hour Marriage Retreats

These retreats offer married couples concrete tools to help them deepen their understanding of themselves and their relationship.

Three to Thrive

This is a program for couples in their first few years of marriage and beyond. It consists of a small gathering of newly married couples, a priest if possible, and one mentor couple.

Family Missions

Families grow stronger by serving others together! Holy Week Missions, held in 16 cities in North America, offer families the chance to deepen their faith and experience the joy of being missionaries together.

CATHOLIC WORLDVIEW FELLOWSHIP

An experience that empowers

- 4 weeks of experiential learning through an intensive course on the Catholic Worldview: 3 weeks in the German Rhineland and 1 week in Rome, Italy
- Exploration of over five historic sites in Germany and dozens in Rome in the North American Territory.
- A growing network of over 70 alumni fellows

Catholic Worldview Fellowship

“The Fellowship changed the way I live, experience the world, and view my time on earth. Through this Fellowship, I explored and reclaimed my identity, mission, and Catholic faith. It was such a blessing to live in a community of unique, faith-filled young adults with a common mission and their eyes set on God. By embracing God’s will for my life, I am now experiencing freedom like never before.”

DANIELLE SULLIVAN

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT DALLAS

The Catholic Worldview Fellowship is a month-long summer study abroad program for talented, Catholic college students. College is the time when students—among them tomorrow’s leaders in society—ask existential questions, look for inspiration, seek mentors and make life decisions. By forming, networking and empowering students who want to evangelize culture, the Catholic Worldview Fellowship seeks to contribute to the Church’s effort to evangelize and spread the Gospel in society. Year after year, it is our hope that graduates of the Catholic Worldview Fellowship will go back to their cities, parishes and campuses empowered by this transformative experience of looking at history, the world and their own life in light of the Catholic Worldview.

DIVINE MERCY UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1999 with

- Over 400 students are currently enrolled in on-campus and online programs.
- Offers fully online Master's of Science degrees in Psychology and Counseling

Divine Mercy University

“Throughout my years at [DMU], the faculty challenged me and my fellow classmates to question and think deeply about the dignity of the human person, suffering, and health. Today, my clinical work often centers on encouraging clients to acknowledge their dignity and worth, to find meaning in their suffering, and to build a life worth living with both the comfortable and uncomfortable aspects.”

Patrick Graveline, Psy.D.

CLASS OF 2007
GERMANTOWN, MD

Divine Mercy University is a Catholic institution founded in 1999 to train leaders in the field of psychology. The University is dedicated to the integration of the best psychological research with a Catholic-Christian view of the human person.

DMU is forming professionals in the mental health field and other psychology-related careers to meet the growing demand for men and women who respect the dignity and uniqueness of every client. The programs at DMU educate students so they have the tools and knowledge to help their clients flourish as human beings.

As a result of their unique training, DMU graduates go beyond simple symptom relief to facilitate true healing and growth for clients and their families.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Preparing students to be spiritual directors in the Catholic Tradition, with the heart and mind of Jesus Christ

- Integrating theology and human sciences in relation to spiritual development
- Combining online classes, on-site residences, and a practicum
- Teaching the art and skill of human interaction

Spiritual Direction Certificate Program

“The Church continues to recommend the practice of spiritual direction not only to those who desire to follow the Lord closely but to every Christian who wishes to live responsibly his or her Baptism, that is, new life in Christ. Everyone, in fact, especially those who have heeded the divine call to follow Christ closely, needs to be accompanied personally by a guide reliable in doctrine and expert in the things of God...”

POPE BENEDICT XVI

MAY 19, 2011

The Spiritual Direction Certificate Program is offered through Divine Mercy University in collaboration with Regnum Christi. The Regnum Christi charism is imbued with a rich Christ-centered spirituality that seeks to meet individuals in their life situation and help them become missionary disciples, agents for the Christian transformation of society and culture. Divine Mercy University has a proven method of developing onsite and online programs that are both academically rigorous and practical for working adults, deeply integrating the latest insights of the human sciences and the Catholic Christian view of the human person.

The goal of the SDC program is to prepare candidates with the requisite dispositions, knowledge of the theological and human sciences, interactions skills, and supervision tools that will enable them to be spiritual directors with the heart and mind of Jesus Christ and in the tradition of the Church’s tried experience. It seeks to respond to the ongoing need for the followers of Jesus Christ to assist one another on their path of becoming ever more faithful disciples of the Lord.

- Missionaries serve in over 10 different cities in the United States, Canada and the Philippines ministering to over 4000 young people in schools, parishes, clubs, retreats and camps

Regnum Christi Mission Corps

“As a missionary, we are not only leading others to Christ, but also nurturing and developing our own faith. We are able to create rock solid prayer habits and are built up by our fellow missionaries.”

BEN KOMPAR

The Regnum Christi Mission Corps is a 1-2 year Catholic youth missionary program that leads young people into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ, forms them as Christian leaders and apostles, and sends them out to put their unique gifts and talents at the service of the evangelizing mission of the Church.

As role models, Regnum Christi Missionaries mentor young people as they discover who they are, their great calling in Christ, and just how much they can do with Christ to transform this world. They run retreats and camps for middle schoolers, high schoolers and college students and accompany them on city wide, national and international mission trips. They animate campus ministry of Catholic schools and help run after school clubs, sports teams and other evangelization activities.

Missionaries live and work with a team of two to four other Regnum Christi Missionaries along with other lay members of Regnum Christi, Legionaries of Christ priests, and Consecrated Women of Regnum Christi.

Regnum Christi Missionaries experience Christ's personal love deeply and profoundly through prayer, fellowship with other missionaries, and life changing retreats and missions. They receive high quality leadership training and virtue and character formation, to become the courageous missionary Christ's Kingdom needs.

B.L.

RC SPIRITUALITY CENTER USER

The philosophy behind the Regnum Christi Spirituality Center is simple: We believe that God wants to touch and transform every corner of people's souls, and we want to provide quality resources to help make that happen. That's why we group our products into four key categories: pray, learn, grow, and go.

The "Pray" category reaches into your spiritual life and gives you tools to keep fresh your relationship with God.

The "Learn" category addresses your mind, trying to help you expand and deepen your knowledge of God's plan for the world, the Church, and your own life.

The "Grow" category looks to move your willpower, inspiring you not only to pray and think about living life to the full but to work hard on actually growing in wisdom and virtue.

Finally, the "Go" section points to creative ideas, models, and opportunities for obeying Christ's command to "go and make disciples of all nations" – a mission that every one of us is called to join as the very best way to love our neighbors as ourselves. Those four sectors embody what we in Regnum Christi call "integral formation."
